The update is a major one, because it brings the macOS Sierra prerelease for developers and introduces new Siri features. The iOS 8.1 beta is the third Developer Preview of the upcoming iOS 8.1 update. Mac users will get the update as part of a developer release. Siri now supports independent query responses for specific services, as well as HomeKit. Assistant can do the same. These new features will be demonstrated in the WWDC keynote next Monday. The iOS 8.1 beta is available on the Developer website, and requires an Apple Developer account. The new iOS 8.1 e79caf774b

(Ubios.be).SoftBank Proposes 40bn USD IPO in Asia SoftBank has reportedly submitted a plan to Japan's minister of finance to list about 40 billion yen ($431 million) worth of shares. The deal would be the largest initial public offering in Asia since Alibaba floated in Hong Kong in 2014. In a statement, the company said it wants to expand the number of shareholders to raise more capital, and sources said the value of the new shares was estimated at 35-37 billion yen. It's not yet clear how this IPO would be structured but it's expected to include Kansai Telekom's (6701.T) 42.5% stake in Sprint Japan and other holders' stakes. The telecom operator holds a stake of about 40% in SoftBank's telecom business, which is currently a separate company. Sprint is expected to list in Hong Kong after the IPO. FMCG tie-up in India could be historic deal worth over $1 bln Since last week, top mutual fund houses including HDFC, SBI, HDFC, ICICI and UTI have started assigning a rating of "buy" or "hold" to the ONGC, a deal that could be worth a tad less than $1 billion. The promoter is India's Oil and Natural Gas Corp. or ONGC, a state-run oil company that has lately looked at mergers and acquisitions in response to the challenging domestic oil market. This is the first time the company's funds have come together to put out a word on a deal. The best level that has been assigned so far is "hold" or "buy" for the shares based on the 12-month forward p/e ratio of 30.62, the level at which HDFC benchmarked all the deals to ascertain the "buy" rating. 13bn Yuan aims to be bigger global investment firm than Blackstone 13.2 billion yuan ($2.1 billion) of the company's 36.2 billion yuan equity fund will be invested in mainland property, to target the major cities in China, said Li Ling, who is also executive vice president of the Chinese Securities Association. Remember Harvey Milk, the influential San Francisco politician assassinated at the age of 39? Despite his positive vision for LGBT people, you probably don't. And, if you're like me, you think he's a fictional figure whose existence serves as a symbol for the LGBT movement, or the modern gay rights movement, or the battle to end all discrimination. So this week, I invited my high school-age daughter and an American History class to a Tea Party. We sat down, faced a long table laden with delicious smelling foods, and watched my daughter host the proceedings. Every so often, someone would raise their hand to ask a question, or to offer their two cents on a political topic. When it was my turn, I was surprised to see a young woman seated next to me holding a poster on the 40th anniversary of the Civil Rights Act of 1964. Her card revealed that she was a student at Margaret Hill School in Topeka, Kansas. We had a good conversation. She had no idea who Harvey Milk was -- or even if this "Milk" was a real person. But she was interested and engaged -- and that was all the education I needed. I couldn't help but think about how much we take for granted in this country. Then I remembered the Tea Party, and I thought of two other
